

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

SIKA CORPORATION,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 25-cv-10977
Hon. Matthew F. Leitman

LESLIE WOLSCHLEGER,

Defendant or Respondent.

ADMINISTRATIVE INJUNCTION

In this action Plaintiff Sika Corporation (“Sika”) alleges that Defendant Dr. Leslie Wolschleger, a former employee of Sika, is currently in breach of a non-compete agreement that she signed while working at Sika. Now before the Court is a motion by Sika seeking a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction to enforce the terms of the non-compete agreement. (See Mot., ECF No. 2.)

On April 17, 2025, the Court held a settlement conference with the parties. At the conclusion of the settlement conference, the parties agreed to continue exploring a possible agreed-upon resolution of this matter. They further agreed that it would be appropriate for the Court to issue a limited and temporary injunctive order to preserve one element of the status quo as they work toward a possible resolution. The parties agreed that the Court could preclude Dr. Wolschleger from sharing with

L & L Products any confidential and/or proprietary information concerning Sika and its business that she obtained while working for Sika.

Accordingly, until further order of the Court, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Dr. Wolschleger shall not divulge to L&L Products any confidential or proprietary information concerning Sika or its business that she acquired or learned while working at Sika. This is only an administrative injunction and is not a ruling on the merits of Sika's motion. This order shall remain in place only until the parties resolve their dispute or until the Court holds a hearing on the pending injunction motion.

If the parties' effort to resolve this case is not successful, then by not later than May 12, 2025, the Court will hold a hearing on Sika's motion.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
